ENTICING TEXTURES WITH STRENGTH AND SOPHISTICATION

PARISSI is a soft-touch, natural-fibre blend that exudes cosy and comforting style. Showcasing tasteful texture and contrast with its use of fine chenille yarns, this premium quality gives an alluring, mottled finish.

Application: This heavy commercial, dual-purpose fabric blends strength and engaging tactility for an idyllic combination. With its transitional nature, PARISSI is perfectly suited to any application from lush lampshades, cosy cushions, deluxe drapery and enticing upholstery.

Colourways: With 31 cultivated colours, PARISSI's softly textured finish and heavy commercial rating make this fabric almighty and adaptable. Warm neutrals include Bone, Mushroom and Cobblestone. Polished pastels can be found in Rosewater, Pistachio and Dew. Hues of Cranberry, Maize and Atlantic bring bolder saturation to this range. PARISSI's overall tone and matte finish make this fabric the perfect palette to enhance any interior with inviting warmth.

Rating: PARISSI's dual-purpose nature bring engaging aesthetic and comforting charm to any application. This heavy commercial rated, natural-blend fabric is resilient, refined and comes in an array of enticing colours. Soft-touch and sophisticated, PARISSI's subtly flecked finish creates tonal contrast to any interior with a relaxing, luxe edge.
