SHEER TROPICAL FOLIAGE WITH A MODERN TOUCH - NELMA by Warwick

Influenced by nature, NELMA takes inspiration from tropical foliage to create a modern sheer drapery. Self-weighted with a continuous 300cm width and featuring a tossed botanical design, NELMA is a contemporary floral that is ideal for creating serene and harmonious moods, and relaxed and inviting spaces.

- DESIGN: NELMA features a two-toned effect with a striking marled yarn that gives the fabric a subtle textured appearance, adding to the natural aesthetic it provides to an interior. Dry and tactile in nature, NELMA offers an organic and raw finish with its clipped jacquard construction in harmonious neutral hues that create calming and ethereal spaces while still allowing light to filter through.
- APPLICATION: From contemporary and modern interiors, to serene and relaxed environments, NELMA takes on an airy and elegant aesthetic, inviting a tranquil and light mood to the space. Oeko-Tex certified and FR tested, NELMA is self-weighted and offers a generous 300cm continuous wide width which adds to its versatility, making it easy to work with and perfect for large architectural windows.
- COLOURWAYS: With a colourway of six complementary neutral hues, NELMA brings diversity and dimension when decorating an interior. Organic colours of Natural and White are great options for a relaxed tone-on-tone aesthetic, while Charcoal, Midnight, Pewter and Silver offer cooler neutral hues for a more modern and sophisticated urban look.
- RATING: This self-weighted and 300cm continuous wide width fabric is sheer and light, making it ideal for creating airy and relaxing environments. With a AS1530.2 fire rating and Oeko-Tex certification, NELMA's range of colours and soft nature brings a sense of calm and serenity to a modern residential and coastal commercial spaces.
