

WARWICK

SUBTLE, ETHEREAL AND ELEGANT - ADLER by Warwick

Overview: ADLER is a soft and sophisticated companion to suit most occasions. This continuous 320cm wide-width sheer delivers a perfect drape with its self-weighted finish and features a delicate pinstripe pattern. With its natural blend construction and directional design, ADLER brings a tranquil yet tailored nature to any interior.

- Design: This plain weave sheer displays a gentle pinstripe pattern formed by its mixed yarn, piece-dyed construction. ADLER adds an ethereal texture and structured flow to a myriad of spaces with its two-tone aesthetic and transitional tones.
- Application: Fire rated with continuous wide-width capabilities, ADLER's transitional nature can adapt to most interior applications from large architectural to small town house windows with its self-weighted drop. The organically textured, two-tone pinstripe adds filtered privacy that creates a relaxed and ambient atmosphere in a selection of spaces.
- Colourways: ADLER features 12 sophisticated skus that bring a classic pattern and understated palette to any interior. Timeless neutral tones include Nougat, Shell and Stone. Darker colours of Pewter, Carbon and Graphite create a more urban feel. Mushroom, Cloud and Seafoam add subtle pigment to this collections palette.
- Rating: Adding filtered privacy and understated, two-tone texture is made easy with our ADLER collection. This continuous 320cm wide-width sheer is Oeko-Tex certified and fire rated to AS1530.3 standards. Its elegant pinstripe pattern is showcased beautifully with its natural fibre blend and self-weighted finish. With a transitionally toned and useable palette, ADLER brings visual interest and sophisticated structure to an array of applications.
