DECORATIVE ACCENTS WITH A BLEND OF TEXTURE - PORTUS by Warwick

Overview: PORTUS brings together three contemporary embroidery patterns with a transitional stripe for a collection that lets you become the designer. Offering a selection of decorative drapery and cushion options that work together or individually, PORTUS is perfect for adding statement accents into classic interiors.

- Inspiration: This decorative collection has taken inspiration from timeless patterns, recreating them with an opulent and luxurious feel. Mixing modern natural blended fabrics, embellishments and embroidery. PORTUS offers a mix and match range that is ideal for a personalized look.
- Design: NAVIO is a dual purpose classic stripe with a sophisticated herringbone texture, achieved from its jacquard weave. DUBRIS features a textured damask pattern with intricate embroidery on a plain base cloth. CAROLINE's classic scallop repeat and ombre effect, offers a lustrous sheen from its embroidery. Whilst PORTUS is a large scale trellis design with sequin detailing combined into its embroidery.
- Application: These designs bring intricate detail and a traditional decorative feel to their environment, with a soft colour palette and naturally blended textures. Ideal for adding decorative statement cushions, accent lampshades or drapes, PORTUS, DUBRIS and CAROLINE will work individually or harmonize together adding tactile interest and detail into a space. NAVIO offers a refined coordinate with its additional domestic upholstery capability.
- Colourways: Neutrals of Pumice and Highrise are perfect for classic palettes working into existing interiors with ease. Skylight adds hints of soft duck egg blues for a more subtle colour scheme. Punchier Pampus offers more of a statement for those seeking to add bolder colour.
- Rating: Oeko-Tex certified, NAVIO's dual purpose usage pairs perfectly with PORTUS, DUBRIS and CAROLINE's drapery rating. Romantic and classic in feel - these transitional skus offer a variety of mix and match designs to add accents to various residential interior schemes.
