AN ELITE VINYL COLLECTION OF TASTEFUL TEXTURE - LUSTRELL RANGER by Warwick

Overview: LUSTRELL RANGER adds an enticing new texture to our expanding Lustrell brand. With its transitional matte finish and leather-look embossing, this vinyl encompasses all interior styles from classic to contemporary. Soft to touch with an exquisitely dry finish - LUSTRELL RANGER is bleach-cleanable and features a fire tested, heavy commercial rating with protective HealthGuard properties. Mighty and malleable, this elite vinyl brings an exemplary base to all upholstery shapes and situations in both residential and commercial environments.

- Application: Tastefully textured and refined in palette - LUSTRELL RANGER lends itself to infinite upholstery applications with a pleasingly soft finish. This versatile easy clean vinyl brings sophistication to cushions and small to large-scale upholstery in all environments without compromising on technical features. LUSTRELL RANGER delivers - from tasteful, timeless and refined residential settings, to high traffic situations including hospitality, retail, educational and hotels.
- Colourways: Understated and universal - LUSTRELL RANGER features a sophisticated selection of 15 colours, encircling a range of interior styles. Dune, Molasses and Chocolate bring more traditional leather hues. Army, Port and Captain add a touch of rich and trending tones. Elephant, Steel and Haze offer more urban and transitional colours to the collection.
- Rating: LUSTRELL RANGER is fire tested to AS1530.3 standards and boasts a bleach-cleanable, heavy commercial rating. Featuring HealthGuard antimicrobial, antibacterial and anti-dust mite properties, this adaptable and all-purpose vinyl is at home in both residential and commercial environments. With its tasteful selection of tone and leather-look finish, LUSTRELL RANGER's transitional nature brings a refined and relaxing feel to suit a selection of interior schemes.
