TACTILE GEOMETRY THAT IS LOADED WITH STYLE – LAUTNER by Warwick

LAUTNER is a design that captures a confident interplay of texture and form, where comfort takes centre stage and style earns a cult following.

- DESIGN: Woven with the instinct for a new phase of mid-century modern, LAUTNER has the appeal of velvet depth with the sculptural accents of light and shadow. There are three distinct designs within the collection, SEIDLER, a chunky chenille checkerboard, WALSH, a diluted large-scale check, and LAUTNER, a tonal & textured stripe.
- APPLICATION: Rated heavy commercial, LAUTNER will work boldly across residential and commercial spaces, with the texture in each of the collection's patterns accommodating higher traffic. Whether used on mass, as a statement piece, or as an accent, the sophisticated woven appearance remains effortlessly comfortable, delivering a style that has visual impact, long-lasting performance and the flexibility to use formally or informally.
- COLOURWAYS: The LAUTNER palette balances deep, architectural tones with grounded neutrals and rich, expressive accents. Drawing from the appeal of mid-century, the colour range is character driven with refined neutrals like Silver, Snow and Charcoal complimented with intentional trend-led tones like Brass, Rouge, Chocolate and Navy.
- RATING: Piece dyed with Oeko-Tex certification and an AS1530.3 fire rating.
